Section A: (Reading)

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

When we were rich, my husband and I did not have an hour's rest. We had no time to talk together, to think at our souls or to pray. We had so many cares ! Now guests called in us and so sinned. Now we were afraid that a wolf would kill a colt or a calf, and now that thieves might drive off a herd. When we lay down to sleep, we would not fall asleep, fearing lest the sheep might crush, the lambs we would get up in the night and walk around. No sooner would we be quieted than, we would have a new care-how to get fodder for the winter. And worse than that, there was not much agreement between my husband and me. He would say differently and so we began to quarrel, and sin. Thus, we lived from one care to another and saw no happy life, but only now have we found it.
